Write a summary of this book :

In a desert, there was a little cactus named Spike. It was kind and caring. It made friends with the lonely Tumbleweed. Spike and Tumbleweed kept looking for oasis and shared water with other plants and creatures. Everyone was grateful for their hard work and perseverance.

In the book, which character do you like the most and why?

I like Spike the most because it was perseverant and diligent. It travelled for a hard and long time to bring water back for everyone. Also, it continued to care and inspire others in the big desert.

What did you learn from this book?

Through Spike's interactions with Tumbleweed, the thirsty desert fox and the wise old owl, I learnt the importance of empathy, perseverance, diligence and law-abidingness.
